Ramco Cements eyes ₹16K cr revenue in 5 yrs

SHINE JACOB
Chennai, 19 August

Chennai-based cement major The Ramco Cements said on Tuesday that it was targeting a revenue of around ₹16,000 crore in the next four to five years, up from around ₹8,539 crore in 2024-25 (FY25). It is looking to expand the capacity from around 18 million tonnes (mt) now to 30 mt by that time. The company also rebranded its Construction Chemicals with the name "Hard Worker", with a target to generate around ₹2,000 crore revenue in the segment in the next five years.

This will now feature 20 specialised Hard Worker products, including tile adhesives, waterproofing solutions, bonding agents, and repair mortars, and the company is planning to have at least 100 products in its basket in the next two years, said PV Abinav Ramasubramaniam Raja, Director of Ramco Group.

All products under "Hard Worker" are manufactured in-house at Ramco's own facilities — a testament to its commitment to quality, consistency, and control.

The manufacturing process is environmentally conscious, ensuring products are sustainable, safe, and scalable. "Hard Worker" is now available across Tamil Nadu, Kerala, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh, Odisha, and West Bengal, distributed through Ramco's robust dealer network.

Akasa Air completes fundraising, Premji Invest joins Jhunjhunwalas

DEEPAK PATEL
New Delhi, 19 August

Akasa Air on Tuesday announced the completion of its strategic investment transactions, first unveiled in February this year, after receiving all regulatory approvals. The fundraising brings in Premji Invest, 360 ONE Asset and Claypond Capital, alongside additional capital from the Jhunjhunwala family, to accelerate the airline's expansion and long-term growth plans.

The transaction is estimated at about $125 million, according to people familiar with the matter. Akasa said the funds will be directed towards expanding operations, enhancing customer experience, and investing in safety, reliability and advanced technology. The airline has set a target of becoming one of the world's top 30 carriers by 2030. The new investors in Akasa include Premji Invest, the investment arm of Azim Premji whose returns support the Azim Premji Foundation; funds managed by 360 ONE Asset, a leading wealth and asset management firm; and Claypond Capital, the investment office of Manipal Group chairman Ranjan Pai. The Jhunjhunwala family, already a key shareholder, has also infused additional capital, the airline stated.

The infusion comes against the backdrop of widening losses. Akasa's standalone net loss rose 18.7 per cent year-on-year to about ₹1,983 crore in 2024-25 (FY25), driven by higher employee, maintenance, airport and forex costs, according to people aware of the matter. In FY24, its net loss had more than doubled to ₹1,670 crore from ₹744 crore a year earlier. Vinay Dube, founder and chief executive officer of Akasa Air, on Tuesday said the fresh capital would allow the airline to scale sustainably while keeping customers and employees at the centre of its operations. He also thanked Jhunjhunwala family for its continued belief in the airline, and the Ministry of Civil Aviation for its support.

"We warmly welcome our new investors to the Akasian family and deeply appreciate their confidence in our team. Their support affirms our vision and strengthens our ability to scale sustainably while keeping customers and employees at the heart of our operations," Dube said.

When asked about FY25 losses, an airline spokesperson had responded in June that the airline remains "net cash positive" at the operating level and that the losses are in line with its business plan for the foundational years.
